- The applicant must have a financial need
- Following the submission deadline, the Fantasia Fair Scholarship Committee will evaluate all submissions and select which candidates will be offered scholarships
- Scholarships include registration and/or housing for all or part of the Fantasia Fair conference; registration includes lunches/brunches Monday through Sunday as well as some evening meals
- Applicants selected for scholarships will be notified on or about August 15
- Applicants selected for a scholarship have until August 31 to notify the scholarship committee of their formal acceptance of the scholarship or otherwise risk forfeiture

Instructions

Please read this entire application and note the rules and submission deadline. Using as much space you like, completely answer each of the questions below. Make sure to submit this application before the submission deadline and, if notified that you have been selected for a scholarship, that you formally accept.

The Fantasia Fair Scholarship Committee tries to support as many scholarships as possible, but cannot support all who request them. Applicants who do not receive a scholarship are encouraged to re-apply next year.
